

January 2012

Whew! What a busy Holiday Season ... so many activities in the Shady Cove-Upper Rogue region - all good - as businesses and organizations brought a beautiful "spirit of community" to our Upper Rogue region - the Prospect Victorian Faire & Tea, held at the Prospect Historic Hotel, was very well received - delicious lunch, tea, and craft vendors made this a most successful first annual event ... see attached "Making Spirits Bright" \(Shady Cove\)

On Wednesday, January 11th, at the General Membership Meeting held at the Edgewater Inn Conference Room, the 2012 Chamber Executive Board, Regional Directors and Committee Chairs were announced - Tami Meerten, Founding President, will continue as president for 2012 - the complete list of Chamber Officers will soon be listed at: www.shadycovechamber.org

2012 Chamber Membership drive has been extended to February 15th

We are pleased so many renewal and new memberships are coming in for the 2012 Shady Cove-Upper Rogue Chamber year ... Chamber Memberships are due prior to February 15th; see attached: About the Chamber, which includes a 2012 Chamber Membership Application. All businesses, organizations, and individuals should consider participating in this regional Chamber - "We mean business!"

It's 2012 - Let's get "Rollin"...

To assist businesses, non-profit, organizations, special events, cottage industries, including start-up businesses, and regional activities in the Shady Cove-Upper Rogue region, this E-Newsletter is proposed to show the value of a strong monthly communication sent to all Chamber Members and an acquired list of E-Newsletter addresses that reaches throughout our Upper Rogue, Rogue Valley and far beyond - you, too, can take part in showing your dedication to the Shady Cove and Upper Rogue region by forwarding this "Community First" communication to your friends, neighbors, organizations and/or agencies ... your input is valuable - contact the Chamber by phone or email (listed below).

Upper Rogue Community Center

Gary Endicott & Ed Mayer report on

Shady Cove Boys & Girls Club

The URCC is meeting weekly with other community volunteers to complete plans for integrating the Boys & Girls Club youth activities into the URCC Youth Activities Program. Phase One of the integration is 90% complete with Phase Two to follow:

There will be a Youth Activities Program TOWN HALL on Wednesday, January 25th at 6:00 pm at the URCC.

At this time the volunteers working on this process will present the integration concept. It will be an opportunity for volunteers to sign up to assist the youth of Shady Cove with their time and/or financial support. We look forward to making this program available for the youth of Shady Cove-and, thank the community for it's past support.

Making Spirits Bright . . .

Christmas 2011 was a time of giving and sharing throughout our Upper Rogue region.

In Shady Cove, business, organizations and volunteers came forth to make spirits bright! Festive holiday banners were hung throughout the town by volunteers from the Greater Shady Cove Boosters; businesses displayed festive lights to welcome both locals and travelers!

Owner of Book 'N More, Kelly Kagy, held an Open House to pay tribute to the late Susan Drown; friends, businesses, and customers attended to remember this very special person.

The Allaboard Trolley delivered Santa and his Elves to “The Stop” for FREE Santa Photos, refreshments and a special gift from Santa’s treasure box; over one hundred children and parents participated.

To support the Shady Cove Fire District #4 and its Support Group, the Shady Cove-Upper Rogue Chamber and businesses in the area participated in a most successful, first time, “Christmas Decorations Fundraiser”. The fundraiser, part of the community-wide “Deck the Halls of Shady Cove” celebration brought proceeds of $408 to benefit the local fire department’s 4th annual Children’s Christmas Party held December 10th; this festive party attracted more than 300 youngsters.

Participating in the Chamber sponsored “decoration fundraiser” included:

- Bargains on the Rogue
- Bill’s Barber Shop
- Book-N-More
- Chickadee Gift & Garden
- City of Shady Cove
- Edgewater Inn
- High Country Arts
- R. F. Vaughn Real Estate
- River Plaza Fitness Center
- Two Pines Restaurant
- Windermere Trails End (Jinny Pardee)
- Windermere Trails End (Mike & Bonnie Malepsy)

Shady Cove’s Tree Lighting sponsored by the City of Shady Cove, included music by the school band and choir – over 100 attended this special celebration.

THANK YOU to all that richly blessed our rural communities . . .
